In addition to any other warranties, express or implied, Seller warrants that the merchandise shall be merchantable and shall be fit for the purpose for which sold. In case of conflict between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and any terms or conditions on or in any confirmation, acknowledgment, sale or invoice form of Seller, or any correspondence pertaining to any of these or the merchandise, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control. No waiver of any breach of any terms or conditions of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of that term or condition or other term or condition of the same or different nature.
2. All goods are to be delivered F.O.B. Purchaser's store and Purchaser incurs no liability until actual receipt. Acceptance of merchandise by Purchaser shall not constitute a waiver on the part of Purchaser of its rights thereunder.
3. Any merchandise rejected by Purchaser will be held, at Seller's risk, subject to Seller's instruction or at Purchaser's option, returned to Seller without notice to Seller and at Seller's expense and such return will be adequate notice of rejection of the merchandise.
4. Seller hereby represents, warrants and guarantees that the merchandise covered by this Agreement will be manufactured in compliance with, will meet the requirements of and will be properly labeled packaged and tested according to and otherwise conform in all respects with the following insofar as applicable to the merchandise: the Textile Fiber Products Identification Act, the Fur Products Labeling Act, the Wool Products Labeling Act, the Federal Hazardous Substances Labeling Act, the Flammable Fabrics Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act and any other applicable Federal, state, county or municipal law, and related ordinances, rules and regulations, and that a continuing or other guarantee, if provided for under such law or regulation, will be filed with the Federal Trade Commission or other appropriate governmental agency and an affirmation of such guarantee will appear on each invoice before payment of such invoice is required to be made without loss of discount.
5. Seller agrees to the following Purchaser policies related to date coded merchandise:
 - All DSD products must be delivered to Purchaser's stores with the maximum available shelf life from production. In cases of extremely short-lived product (Dairy, Bakery, etc.) all product must be coded as saleable through the next scheduled delivery date at a minimum.
 - All DSD products will be rotated, all products will be reviewed for expiration or "best by" dates, and short-dated product pulled from the shelf by the Seller on each service delivery. Short-dated product is defined as any product that will expire or whose “best by” date will pass prior to the next scheduled delivery from the Seller. The only exception to this requirement will be Sellers that have agreed in writing with the Purchaser that their program is a drop ship/non-service program, in which case Purchaser will be responsible for product rotation and pulling product from the shelf.

- All products removed from the sales floor will be credited out on the next delivery cycle for the Seller. In cases where credits must be in full case quantities the “less than case” product will be stored separately from saleable back stock and be clearly marked as outdated, non-saleable, merchandise. Such products returns will be accepted by Seller and credited to Purchaser as soon as a full case is achieved.

8. Except as to the right to payment arising out of Seller’s due performance of its entire obligation, Seller shall make no assignment of any right arising hereunder and shall not delegate any duty owed by it to Purchaser and any such attempted assignment or delegation shall be wholly void and totally ineffective for all purposes, unless the prior written consent of Purchaser, signed by an officer of Purchaser, shall have been obtained.
